DISCLOSURE REGARDING CONSUMER REPORTS AND INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORTS UNDER THE FCRA

The Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (the "Act"), as amended, provides that any consumer reporting agency may furnish a consumer report in accordance with certain permissible purposes, including the written instructions of the consumer to whom it relates and/or for employment or contracting purposes.

In accordance with those provisions, American National Insurance Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates (together "the Company"), or their designated representatives, may obtain – in writing, orally, or in any other form – any motor vehicle records, public records, or information gathered or maintained by a consumer reporting agency bearing on your creditworthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living, which is used or expected to be used or collected in whole or in part for the purpose of serving as a factor in establishing your eligibility for credit, employment, or any other permissible purpose authorized under Section 604 of the Act.

The Company may obtain information on your credit history, as permitted by law, at any time after you sign the authorization and throughout the term of your appointment. The Company may obtain information about other aspects of your background (such as criminal history and motor vehicle information), as permitted by law.

Further, the Company may request that an investigative consumer report be made whereby information on your character, general reputation, personal characteristics or mode of living is obtained through personal interviews with business associates, employers, friends, neighbors, and others with whom you may be acquainted or who may have knowledge concerning any such items of information. You have the right to make a written request within a reasonable period of time to receive additional, detailed information about the nature and scope of this investigation. Should you choose to exercise this right, please direct your written request to MLAdisclosures@americannational.com. You also have a right to a written summary of your rights under the Act.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment or to take another adverse action against you must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - · a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - · you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - · your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - · you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888567-8688).
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance. gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:

You understand that it is sometimes necessary for the Company to refund premiums in order to settle disputes with policyholders. This decision is made solely at the discretion of the Company, and you will still be liable for the return of unearned commissions.

Limitation of Authority – You shall not possess or exercise any authority on behalf of the Company other than the power or authority expressly conferred by this Agreement and you shall not assume that any power or authority is implied. Specifically, but not in limitation to the foregoing, you shall have no authority on behalf of the Company to:

- (1) make, alter, or discharge any contract.
- assign this Agreement or any compensation payable underitwithoutthepriorwrittenconsentoftheCompany.
- (3) solicit applications for the Company in any manner prohibited by or inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement or the rules and regulations of the Company.
- (4) induce any Company employee or sales representative to terminate any agreement with the Company or any affiliate of the Company or otherwise interfere with any employee or agent's relationship with the Company of any affiliate of the Company.
- (5) incur any indebtedness or liability, expend, or contract for the expenditure of any funds of the Company.
- (6) extend the time for payment of any premium, bind the Company to the reinstatement of any terminated policy, or accept notes for payment of premiums.
- (7) waive or modify any terms, conditions, or limitations of any policy.
- (8) adjust or settle any claim or commit the Company with respect thereto.
- (9) issue or circulate any advertisement or literature unless the same shall have been first approved in writing by the compliance officer of the Company.
- (10) enter into any legal proceedings in connection with any matters pertaining to the Company, which may in any way involve or affect the Company, its affiliates, their business, operations, or any policy issued by them.

- (11) deliver any policy issued by the Company until the applicant has made settlement for the first premium.
- deliver any policy if you or your agents have knowledge of any impairment of the applicant's health not disclosed on the application or occurring subsequent to the securing of the application or if more than thirty (30) days have elapsed from the date of mailing of the policy by the Company, unless authorized in writing by an officer of the Company.

Compensation - For the purpose of determining compensation, your compensation shall include not only your personal production, but also the production of all agents assigned to you. You shall be compensated according to the related Compensation Schedule, based on premiums received on policies issued by the Company for applications secured under this Agreement. Payment of commissions and service fees shall be made at such times and in the manner the Company considers appropriate for the efficient administration of this Agreement. The Compensation Schedule is subject to change by the Company, but any change shall not apply to business written prior to the effective date of the change. The agent's statements rendered by the Company concerning commissions and service fees paid and/or payable, advances and indebtedness shall be conclusive, unless, within thirty (30) days following receipt of the statement, you notify the Company in writing of a dispute regarding any transactions reported since the last preceding report. If a policy on which you are receiving commission or service fees shall lapse for any reason, no further commission or service fees will be paid unless the policy is reinstated solely by the efforts of you. If, for any reason, the Company refunds any premium on which you received a commission or service fee, you shall immediately repay to the Company the commission or service fee received on such premium.

Compensation After Termination - If this Agreement is terminated by your death or by your total and permanent disability, you or your beneficiary shall receive compensation as provide in the Compensation Section of this Agreement on business written prior to termination. Unless otherwise designated in writing on the face page of this Agreement, your beneficiary shall be your spouse, if then living, otherwise, your estate. If this agreement is terminated for any cause other than your death or disability, or your acting to prejudice materially the interests of the Company or its affiliates, or your violation of any of its provisions, you shall receive Compensation as provided in the Compensation Section of this Agreement less a collection fee of 1% on the premiums paid. If you have materially violated any of the provisions of this Agreement or acted to prejudice materially the interests of the Company or its affiliates, at, before, or after termination of this Agreement, you shall forfeit all commissions and all other compensation due or to accrue under this or any previous Agreement between you and the Company or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries. In the event your total compensation after termination of this Agreement totals less than $300.00 during any year after termination no further compensation shall be paid to you or to your beneficiary. All compensation payable after termination of this Agreement shall be subject to the right of recoupment lien established in the Indebtedness Section of this Agreement.

Beneficiary – You may name a beneficiary to receive any commissions payable after your death. The Company reserves the right to require evidence that there are no conflicting claims before making payment to the named beneficiary.

Indebtedness - You shall be responsible to the Company for the acts and collections of you or your agents and employees and for the indebtedness of your agents to the Company. The Company shall have and is hereby given a right of recoupment on all commissions, fees, and any other compensation payable under this or any other contract with the Company and its affiliates for the payment of any and all debts or claims due or to become due to it from you. Without in any way limiting the Company's right to such recoupment, the Company shall have and is hereby given a valid first lien on and right of offset against all commissions, fees, and any other compensation payable under this or any other contract with the Company and its affiliates for the payment of any such debts or claims. This right of recoupment and lien shall not be extinguished by the termination of this Agreement. Following demand for repayment or termination of this Agreement, whichever first occurs, all indebtedness shall thereafter bear interest at the maximum lawful rate until paid. You shall be responsible to the Company for all costs and expenses, including legal fees, incurred by the Company as a part of its efforts to collect indebtedness.

Termination - You acknowledge that the Company has not expressly or by implication agreed to continue the term of this Agreement for any definite period of time. Either party may terminate this Agreement by giving thirty (30) days written notice prior to the date fixed for termination. Any notice may be mailed or delivered to the last known address of the other party. The Company may terminate this Agreement at any time upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- Yourdeathoryourtotalandpermanentdisabilityas defined under the Company's rules and practices then in effect.
- The Company's written notice to you of its withdrawal from the territory in which you are licensed.
- Upon written notice from the Company that your performance has been substandard under the Company's requirements applicable to you regarding production, persistency, or other matters, as they may be amended from time to time.
- 4. The Company's written notice to you that you have violated any of the provisions of this Agreement or that you have otherwise acted to prejudice materially the interest of the Company or its affiliates.

Upon termination, you shall in no manner thereafter act for the company and shall promptly account for and remit to the Company any monies then held for it. On demand, you shall turn over to the Company all undelivered policies, software, ratebooks, other records, materials, and properties pertaining to your agency business. Your right to any commissions or any other thing of value shall cease if you shall do any act which injures the business or reputation of the Company or if you fail to account for and remit promptly any monies collected by you for the Company or shall withhold any policies, money, or other property belonging or returnable to the Company.

Enforcement – You agree that, in addition to all rights and remedies available to the Company to enforce the provisions of this Agreement, whether before or after its termination, whether by judicial action or otherwise, the Company may compel your compliance with this Agreement by injunction issued by any court of competent jurisdiction.

Award Recognition and Incentive Programs – The Company may, at its sole discretion, provide special award and incentive programs for its agents holding this Agreement. However, the Company is under no obligation to continue any such awards or programs and may discontinue them without notice.

Waiver – No act of forbearance on the part of the Company to enforce any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be construed as a modification of this Agreement, nor shall the failure of either party to exercise any right or privilege granted in the Agreement be considered as a waiver of that right or privilege.

Modification or Amendment – Any modification or amendment of this Agreement must be in writing and must be signed by an officer of the Company; provided, however, that the Company may, by written notice, unilaterally amend any Compensation Schedule or Supplement to this Agreement to affect policies to be issued after the date of the amendment.

Reserved Rights of the Company – The Company reserves the following rights: to refuse to accept any individuals or entity recommended for appointment and to terminate, at its sole discretion anyone whom you recommend for appointment; to unilaterally adopt rules and practices from time to time establishing compensation on old or new policies, commissions on conversions, or commissions on reinstated policies; to withdraw the availability of any policy; to withdraw from any territory; to modify or change its premium rates; to refuse to issue a policy to any applicant without stating any reason for refusal; to adopt rules and practices from time to time relating to any matter not otherwise provided in this Agreement.

Law Applicable – The execution and performance of this Agreement involves transacting business in the State of Texas by you with the Company. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed according to the laws of the State of Texas. All actions with respect thereto shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Texas.

Arbitration – Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this Agreement, with the exception of any request for injunctive relief sought by the Company, will be resolved exclusively and finally by arbitration under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The arbitration may be filed at any AAA location in the United States upon the payment of $100 of any applicable filing fee. If the parties cannot agree on a binding Arbitration

Agreement, then the arbitration will be conducted before a single arbitrator; however, if the amount in controversy is greater than $50,000, the arbitration shall be conducted before three arbitrators. In any event, the arbitrator shall not award punitive damages or attorney's fees, those damages hereby being waived, and arbitration will be limited solely to the dispute or controversy between you and the Company. The arbitration may be held in person, by telephone, or online as agreed by the parties. Any decision rendered in such arbitration proceeding will be final and binding on each of the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in a court of competent jurisdiction. The parties will share the cost of arbitration, (including the arbitrator's fees, if any), in the proportion that the final award bears to the amount of the initial claim.

Sole Agreement – This Agreement, with the related Compensation Schedule, constitutes the sole agreement and supersedes all prior agreements between you and the Company, but this Agreement shall not impair your right to commissions or fees, if any, earned under a prior agreement or agreements with the Company.

Reserved Rights of the Company – The Company reserves the following rights: to refuse to accept any individuals or entity recommended for appointment and to terminate, at its sole discretion anyone whom you recommend for appointment; to unilaterally adopt rules and practices from time to time establishing compensation on old or new policies, commissions on conversions, or commissions on reinstated policies; to withdraw the availability of any policy; to withdraw from any territory; to modify or change its premium rates; to refuse to issue a policy to any applicant without stating any reason for refusal; to adopt rules and practices from time to time relating to any matter not otherwise provided in this Agreement.

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed according to the laws of the State of Texas. All actions with respect thereto shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Texas.

Arbitration – Any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this Agreement, with the exception of any request for injunctive relief sought by the Company, will be resolved exclusively and finally by arbitration under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). The arbitration may be filed at any AAA location in the United States upon the payment of $100 of any applicable filing fee. If the parties cannot agree on a binding Arbitration

Agreement, then the arbitration will be conducted before a single arbitrator; however, if the amount in controversy is greater than $50,000, the arbitration shall be conducted before three arbitrators. In any event, the arbitrator shall not award punitive damages or attorney's fees, those damages hereby being waived, and arbitration will be limited solely to the dispute or controversy between you and the Company. The arbitration may be held in person, by telephone, or online as agreed by the parties. Any decision rendered in such arbitration proceeding will be final and binding on each of the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in a court of competent jurisdiction. The parties will share the cost of arbitration, (including the arbitrator's fees, if any), in the proportion that the final award bears to the amount of the initial claim.

Sole Agreement – This Agreement, with the related Compensation Schedule, constitutes the sole agreement and supersedes all prior agreements between you and the Company, but this Agreement shall not impair your right to commissions or fees, if any, earned under a prior agreement or agreements with the Company.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

What's New

Line 3a has been modified to clarify how a disregarded entity completes this line. An LLC that is a disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Otherwise, it should check the "LLC" box and enter its appropriate tax classification.

New line 3b has been added to this form. A flow-through entity is required to complete this line to indicate that it has direct or indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries when it provides the Form W-9 to another flow-through entity in which it has an ownership interest. This change is intended to provide a flow-through entity with information regarding the status of its indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, so that it can satisfy any applicable reporting requirements. For example, a partnership that has any indirect foreign partners may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3. See the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS is giving you this form because they
